To make an attractive sign, use only one or two fonts, and be sure to choose easy-to-read fonts. If you are using a fancy font, don't use all capital letters — they're tricky to read — use mixed case instead. Use a sans serif font when you're placing white text on a colored background. Characters in sans serif fonts have thicker lines.

Since we make the Sign of the Cross before and after all of our prayers, many Catholics don't realize that the Sign of the Cross is not simply an action but a prayer in itself. Like all prayers, the Sign of the Cross should be said with reverence; we shouldn't rush through it on the way to the next prayer.
