Flute

The flute is a family of musical instruments in the woodwind group. Unlike woodwind instruments with reeds, a flute is an aerophone or reedless wind instrument that produces its sound from the flow of air across an opening. According to the instrument classification of Hornbostel-Sachs, flutes are categorized as edge-blown aerophones.

Flute - Wikipedia

The flute has ancient roots as a musical instrument, and it remains a popular choice among students and aspiring players even today. Flutes differ from other members of the woodwind family in that they do not require the use of reeds, but the instruments sometimes do need their own care and maintenance to keep them in proper working order.
