We all know the cat and mouse game in relationships. It is that familiar dynamic of the chaser and the chased. Hollywood and popular culture do a great job of depicting this dance in the courting phase of a budding romance.Instead of the chase going on forever though we often witness a happy ending, with the mouse swooning in the cat's embrace and the game complete.

Suddenly, by the grace of God, in the most unlikely of wedding miracles—the cops turned off their sirens.They stopped yelling. And they just drove on by as the entire block erupted in cheers. . As they passed, my knees buckled & I dropped to the ground. Waves of both relief & disbelief washed over me as I melted into tears.
